

Qualification for Exemption Limited to the Professions Listed Below

1. Active / former sworn or civilian law enforcement personnel, including correctional and correctional probation officers, personnel of the Department of Children and Families whose duties include the investigation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, fraud, theft, or other criminal activities, personnel of the Department of Health whose duties are to support the investigation of child abuse or neglect, and personnel of the Department of Revenue or local governments whose responsibilities include revenue collection and enforcement or child support enforcement;
2. Current / former nonsworn investigative personnel of the Department of Financial Services whose duties include the investigation of fraud, theft, workers' compensation coverage requirements and compliance, other related criminal activities, or state regulatory requirement violations
3. Firefighters certified in compliance with s. 633.408;
4. Current /former justices of the Supreme Court, district court of appeal judges, circuit court judges, county court judges;
5. Current /former state attorneys, assistant state attorneys, statewide prosecutors, or assistant statewide prosecutors;
6. General magistrates, special magistrates, judges of compensation claims, administrative law judges of the Division of Administrative Hearings, and child support enforcement hearing officers; has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
7. Current / former human resource, labor relations, or employee relations directors, assistant directors, managers, or assistant managers of any local government agency or water management district whose duties include hiring and firing employees, labor contract negotiation, administration, or other personnel-related duties;
8. Current / former code enforcement officers;
9. Current / former guardians ad litem, as defined in s. 39.820; if the guardian ad litem provides a written statement that the guardian ad litem has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
10. Current / former juvenile probation officers, juvenile probation supervisors, detention superintendents, assistant detention superintendents, juvenile justice detention officers I and II, juvenile justice detention officer supervisors, juvenile justice residential officers, juvenile justice residential officer supervisors I and II, juvenile justice counselors, juvenile justice counselor supervisors, human services counselor administrators, senior human services counselor administrators, rehabilitation therapists, and social services counselors of the Department of Juvenile Justice;
11. Current / former public defenders, assistant public defenders, criminal conflict and civil regional counsel, and assistant criminal conflict and civil regional counsel;
12. Current / former investigators or inspectors of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation; if the investigator or inspector has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
13. County tax collectors; if the county tax collector has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
14. Current / former personnel of the Department of Health whose duties include, or result in, the determination or adjudication of eligibility for social security disability benefits, the investigation or prosecution of complaints filed against health care practitioners, or the inspection of health care practitioners or health care facilities licensed by the Department of Health; if the personnel have made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
15. Current / former impaired practitioner consultants who are retained by an agency or current or former employees of an impaired practitioner consultant whose duties result in a determination of a person's skill and safety to practice a licensed profession; if a consultant or employee has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
16. Current / former emergency medical technicians or paramedics certified under chapter 401; if the emergency medical technicians or paramedics have made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.
17. Current / former personnel employed in an agency's office of inspector general or internal audit department whose duties include auditing or investigating waste, fraud, abuse, theft, exploitation, or other activities that could lead to criminal prosecution or administrative discipline; if the personnel have made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public.