

Report Exemption Fraud

Florida laws provide for a number of exemptions from property taxes. Sometimes properties receive exemptions they are not entitled to. Your Property Appraiser's office commits a great deal of time and energy regulating these exemptions, but we can't be everywhere all the time. That's where you can help us. Every time someone receives an exemption they shouldn't, the rest of us have to pay. Help us make certain we all pay our fair share and no more. Let us know when you see exemption fraud.

The Property Appraiser's office takes fraud very seriously. Florida law provides for many different penalties, from billing for back taxes to filing liens on the property and criminal prosecution. Help us make sure you are not paying someone else's share of the tax burden by reporting exemption fraud.

You can call us at (352) 374-5230, email us at acpa@acpafll.org, or simply print this form, fill it out and send it to us at 515 North Main Street, Suite 200 Gainesville, FL 32601. You may remain anonymous if you choose.

Address of property owner, if known: _____

Property is (check all that apply)

Rented Vacant Vacation Home Owner has exemption on another home

Please explain in detail why you believe this property is receiving an improper exemption:

If we need additional information, can an investigator contact you? Yes No

If yes, please provide your name and daytime phone number or email address:

Name: _____

Daytime Phone: _____

Email address: _____